Volunteers play an essential role in the operations of Shoes and Clothes for Kids. Your time and effort can make a meaningful impact for local students in need. Our individual and group volunteers contribute over 12,000 hours of service each year!

HOW does SC4K help local kids?

Shoes and Clothes for Kids (SC4K) is a Cleveland-based nonprofit organization that provides new items to local students in need to break barriers to education. Through our Teacher Resource Center, our Legacy Program, and our new Direct Service Program, SC4K provides more than $3M in new shoes, clothes, and school supplies to students each year.

WHO can volunteer for SC4K?

Anyone with a passion for helping local youth is welcome to volunteer with SC4K. Our opportunities are ideal for students (ages 14+), groups, clubs, companies, or any individual interested in a meaningful volunteer experience. Individuals or groups of any size are welcome.

WHAT do SC4K volunteers do?

Volunteers help by sorting and counting clothing and school supply items

- Sorting inventory and counting in-kind donations
- Stocking and organizing our store shelves
- Assisting with checkout during teacher and partner shops
- Participating in special events

WHAT is the volunteer experience like?

Upon your arrival, you'll be greeted by our staff and given a tour and instructions for your volunteer shift. Meeting rooms are available for groups looking to combine a day of service with an off-site retreat, meeting, or lunch before, during, or after your shift.

WHERE are you located?

SC4K's facility is located at the west end of the Greater Cleveland Food Bank's Community Resource Center (CRC) in Cleveland's South Collinwood neighborhood. The CRC is highway accessible (off I-90) and has ample parking. The building is ADA-accessible.
